

Abstract

New ruthenium (II) pyridine-imine complexes have been prepared and characterized. They show good catalytic activity in the oxidation of alcohols to carbonyl products using NaIO_4 in a $\text{H}_2\text{O}/\text{tert}$ -butanol mixture.